Mayoral Candidates Forum

When: Thursday, March 13, 2014

Time: 12pm-2pm

Where: Thurgood Marshall Center
(1816 12th St NW)

The purpose of this forum is to give candidates the opportunity to address a wide array of issues that have significant impact on the quality of life for District residents. Such issues include adult literacy and workforce development for adults facing multiple barriers to employment, as well as, housing affordability for households with low and moderate incomes across the Continuum of Housing. This forum is being sponsored by the DC Adult and Family Literacy Coalition. The forum will be moderated by Denise Rolark Barnes, publisher for the Washington Informer.
